

Dapper Dan the Trolleyman

For more than 14 years, Dapper Dan the Trolleyman had been piloting his streetcar through downtown Zirconium Springs, and in all that time, he'd maintained an unblemished safety record. That all changed the day he decided to make an unscheduled – and, in hindsight, imprudent – left turn at Broad and Binkley.