

The Human Loudspeaker

When Gwendolyn agreed to play the lead role of Meptang in Dinklaker High School's production of "The Human Loudspeaker," she didn't realize that she'd have to wear six woofers and four tweeters on her head plus carry around a heavy tube amplifier in her pocket. She was, however, quite good at reciting her lines, which mostly consisted of a lot of "bzzz-bzzzs" and crackles of static.
