

Joyce, Jeannette, and Monica

Monica is grinning because she surreptitiously replaced her sneakers with sharpened stiletto heels for her company's cheerleading squad routine which, during the Human Pyramid, placed her just above those two harridans, Joyce and Jeannette. Joyce and Jeannette, meanwhile, are scowling for the same reason. The pyramid figure is especially appropriate because Joyce and Jeannette had used scare tactics to recruit Monica to intern for Fenster Diversified Products, which turned out to be nothing more than a front for a multilevel marketing plan – i.e., a pyramid scheme.
