

The MacArthur Fellow

Among the Class of 2014 MacArthur Fellows was Professional Contortionist Lulubelle Pringler, selected because of her “unique ability to remove slippers from her [feet] without the use of her [hands].” When asked how her newfound fame might affect her, Miss Pringler replied “unnggggnn,” which was understandable since her mouth was full of slipper. (Well, duh!)