

The Nunerizer

Not every woman who joins the Sisters of Extreme Mercy in Oakland does so freely. Sometimes the spirit is willing to commit to a life of poverty, chastity, and obedience, but not quite willing enough. In such cases, Blanche, the Mother Superior, authorizes use of the Nunerizer™. No one knows exactly how the device works, though the appearance of a horizontal pucker on the candidate's prefrontal cortex afterwards suggests a discharge of at least 650 volts of electricity is involved. Assisted by Brad and Thor, her two burly non-nuns, Blanche has never yet let a prospective sister get away.
